

The issue of Broadcast ownership should be brought up for public debate. This issue is perfect example how the will of the majority of the people are ignored in this government. Special interest corporations should not be dictating what is best for the entire country because that is not whose best interest they have in mind. The public should be listened to!